January 2018 Edition 1: Newsletter

WELCOME

Dear Parents /Carers,

I would just like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their support during last term. As you are aware we had a very positive monitoring visit from the DfE in December and during Parent Forum I shared the key headlines as well as show everyone a summary document of our School Development Plan (SDP). For those parents/carers that were unable to attend I have summarised the key points and included the SDP in the Newsletter.

For those of you who were able to join us on the last day of term I hope that you enjoyed the day as much as the staff and I did. It was truly wonderful to celebrate all of the pupils' achievements together.

Finally, thank you for ensuring that your child comes to school wearing the correct school uniform. If you are thinking about ordering new uniform please take into account that there is a six week delivery period. Therefore if your child's uniform is starting to look small you may want to consider ordering their uniform now.

Kind regards

Nicola

Here We Are: Notes for Living on Planet Earth

By Oliver Jeffers

#1 New York Times Bestseller and #1 TIME Best Book of the Year for 2017!

The exquisite and thought-provoking new book from the multi award-winning, internationally best-selling picture book creator of Lost and Found.

*"Well, hello.
And welcome to this Planet.
We call it Earth."*

Our world can be a bewildering place, especially if you've only just got here. Your head will be filled with questions, so let's explore what makes our planet and how we live on it. From land and sky, to people and time, these notes can be your guide and start you on your journey. And you'll figure lots of things out for yourself. Just remember to leave notes for everyone else... Some things about our planet are pretty complicated, but things can be simple, too: you've just got to be kind.

Here We Are is the utterly heartfelt new book from Oliver Jeffers. We're glad you found it. "An optimistic snapshot of contemporary life, this heartfelt hug of a book ought to become a classic" The Guardian.

SAFEGUARDING FOCUS-SOCIAL NETWORKING

How can I ensure my child is safe on social networks?

Here are some tips:

Educate yourself on what the various social networks and apps do –see www.internetmatters.org

Agree with your child when they can join a social networking site and create their profile with them

- Help them set privacy settings at the strongest level. Sites can change privacy settings so make sure you stay up to date with them.
- Report people and inappropriate conversations to the site administrator via the 'help' or 'report' tab (if available) and always keep a copy of the conversation as evidence.
- Teach your child how to block or ignore people on social networking sites and online games, and support them in knowing what they can do if someone makes them feel uncomfortable e.g. create a sentence with your child that they can use if they want to exit an uncomfortable conversation online.
- Set boundaries about which sites they can use and for how long. Try to do this when they first start using social networking sites, so they get used to it from a young age.
- Teach your child never to share any personal details – this includes their password, real name, address and their school.
- Use the site yourself – you or another trusted adult can become your child's friend on Facebook or follower on Twitter.
- Explain that friends should be people they know – people they meet online may not be who they say they are. Talk to them about the risks involved with chatting to people they don't know and sharing personal information with them.
- Stress that meeting up with people they know online can be dangerous and that they should only do so with your permission and if you are present. Report directly to CEOP if someone is trying to meet up with your child or if you think your child is in immediate danger.
- Set rules about what they should and shouldn't post.
- Talk to your child about the fact that what they post can't always be taken back, and even if it can, it may already have been shared. This applies to webcams too – teach them to only use webcams with people they know, and show them how to disable it.

*"Don't count the days,
make the days count"*

PET CORNER

Toni-Anne about her 3 cats:

Interview by Adam G.

Toni-Anne has 3 Cats:

- Ferrero Rocher (nickname is Fez) she is a black and white, long haired cat and she is 15 years old.
- Louis (nickname is Baloo from the Jungle Book) he is black and white, the size of a small horse and is 7.
- Lola is a Brindle Cat (which means black, brown and short haired) she is a very small cat and is also 7.

How to look after a cat:

- Food – Louis and Lola share half a sachet of whiskers in the morning and a whole sachet each in the evening. They always have dry biscuits available all the time. Fez just has dry biscuits all day.
- Water - They all have individual water bowls.
- Bed – Louis sleeps on the end of my little girls bed. Fez sleeps on the end of my bed, then Lola sleeps on a furry pillow downstairs.

We wanted them because:

Because we are mad! 3 cats is too many cats!

Fez is a little old lady, she doesn't leave our bedroom which means we have a litter tray which isn't very nice.

Louis is the hunter and gatherer, he likes to bring us mice and rats (sometimes alive). He thinks that rodents are a nice gift.

Lola is the baby, she likes playing with toys, squeaks when she jumps up and down, and she loves cuddles.

Facts about cats:

- 1) Cats are one of, if not the most, popular pet in the world.
- 2) Cats and humans have been associated for nearly 10000 years.
- 3) Cats have flexible bodies and teeth adapted for hunting small animals such as mice and rats.

Summary from our DfE Monitoring Visit

- ♦ Learning routines are now being established and pupils understand the expectations of the school in terms of classroom behaviour and learning
- ♦ Significant progress is evident for most pupils in their written work
- ♦ The school's reward system successfully motivates the majority of pupils and reinforces the school's expectations for behaviour and learning
- ♦ The school has excluded no pupils since opening in September 2017
- ♦ Attendance is close to national averages for mainstream schools, and persistent absence is lower than national averages for mainstream schools
- ♦ The school has developed a good range of afternoon activities which motivate and engage pupils, particularly pupils who find a full day in school tiring.
- ♦ Conversation with pupils, and the pupil questionnaire administered by the school, indicates that pupils rate their enjoyment of learning, different subjects, and their rate of progress, on average, as 3.75 on a scale of 1-5. They particularly think the recently introduced rewards system recognises their efforts and their good attitudes to learning. (20 out of 32 pupils responded)
- ♦ The school's KS4 curriculum offer is in place for the current Year 10 and includes accreditation in a range of subjects at GCSE, Level 1 and Level 2.
- ♦ The baseline assessments for Social /Emotional learning are complete.
- ♦ The two parents spoken to were extremely positive about how much their child's progress had improved since joining the school. They also described schools staff as being very effective in managing their child's special educational needs.
- ♦ The school's arrangements for safeguarding pupils and staff meet requirements. There is a culture of safety across the school
- ♦ Pupils are explicitly taught about how to keep themselves safe, especially when using online networks and the internet.

CONGRATULATIONS

Josh S. got his yellow belt for Jiu Jitsu in December!

*We love hearing about our pupils successes at home, please keep the pictures coming in.

FOOD TECH

This half term pupils will be learning about foods in a multi-cultural society, we will be studying foods that people eat at celebrations and festivals that occur at different times of the year. Years 5,6,7 and 8 will be learning about Shrove Tuesday, Burns Night and Chinese New Year.

Year 9 are going to be planning their own practical's from places they would like to research, America and China have been highlighted so far and curry also seems a popular request.

Year 10's are continuing with their coursework and are focusing on pastry products and meat verses meat alternatives. Pupils have really settled well now into their food tech sessions are seem to be enjoying them.

Kind regards,
Cathy

any leftover chocolate tubs would be gratefully received, for pupils to take home food tech.

SHOW RESPECT

This target is to support pupils to manage their behaviour and attitude towards others.

Suggested Scripts

- ♦ You need to treat others with respect
- ♦ I can see you are finding this situation difficult, stay calm and show respect.

Hints and tips

- ♦ Model the behaviour you want to see
- ♦ Talk in a calm voice
